“Monday Madness” Single Stableford Conditions of Competition

BGC has introduced a Monday competition commencing 04 May 2020. The competition will be known as the “Monday Madness”. The following conditions will apply.

Terms of Competition.

Format. The format of the competition will be Mixed Single Stableford in accordance with the Rules of Golf and the Club’s Local Rules as published. The White Course will be utilised.

Eligibility. These competitions are open to all playing members of the BGC and their guests. Visitors to the club are also welcome to enter the competition. All competitors must be financial members of a golf club and hold a valid Golflink handicap.

Fee’s. A standard competition fee is payable for members, and the full Green Fee is payable by guests and visitors. If a visitor is using a discount coupon, the standard competition fee will be payable in addition to the coupon.

Timing. The final tee time available to be included into the competition will be 1pm.

NTP. A Nearest the Pin competition will be in play on the 14th hole. One each for men and women. The prize payable will be one ball. (Note, due to CoVid protocols, this component of the competition is suspended)

Prizes. Prizes will be payable based on the current Men’s Competition prize schedule (as shown on the club notice board). Where there are less than 6 players in a competition, only the first-place prize will be awarded in that competition. The ball rundown will be as per the schedule shown in the Men’s prize schedule for each competition. These prizes will be subject to review after the competition has had a chance to ‘bed-in’.

As this is a new event on the Club calendar, the above conditions may be subject to change based on feedback received over time.
